Valle del Guadalhorce, Álora

In one of the most picturesque mountain areas of Malaga, one hour from the famous Ronda and just 40 minutes from Malaga airport and the coast, we find this beautiful rural house on the ground floor that has just completed a careful comprehensive renovation designed to enjoy the wealth of this town where the tranquility of its streets and the kindness of its inhabitants will make you feel at home. Central and close to all the services that the town offers.

The house, rustic in style and built in 1945, has been completely renovated with high quality materials. It has a southwest orientation that gives it light, two bedrooms and two full bathrooms, one of them en suite, ceramic floors and tiles in the kitchen and bathrooms, PVC windows imitating wood with double glazing, and a beautiful kitchen open to the living room with appliances. High quality and design. In the living room we find a powerful, low-consumption fireplace-type stove. The house has air conditioning in the en-suite bedroom and a ceiling fan in the other and beautiful details typical of these houses.
