With a charming terrace, this space offers a pleasant outdoor seating area, inviting customers to relax and enjoy the surroundings. The premises also include accessible washrooms for added convenience.

About La Heredia:

Located on the foothills of the Sierra Blanca Mountains, La Heredia is a picturesque, gated community known for its Andalusian-style architecture and vibrant international community. The area is home to both residents and visitors, providing a constant flow of potential clientele. The community's affluence and focus on quality living make it an ideal location for a butcher or delicatessen. With easy access to surrounding towns like Marbella and Estepona, this business could cater to both locals and tourists seeking premium cuts of meat, artisanal products, or gourmet foods.
