EMBRACE THE QUALITY OF LIVING IN SOTOGRANDE Due to the area's elevation, it has become a favorite for golf enthusiasts, with exceptional golf courses located here. Perhaps the most famous of the Sotogrande golf courses, Valderrama (just 3 km away from the plots) shot to international fame when the 32nd Ryder Cup was played there – leading to this part of the coast being temporarily renamed the Costa del Golf. Additionally Sotogrande is a home to one of the most important polo clubs in the world. Sotogrande Alto is also adjacent to the national natural park 'El Pinar del Rey,' a verdant and tranquil expanse that provides a peaceful retreat and adds to the area's calm atmosphere. This unique geographical feature not only highlights Sotogrande Alto's exclusivity and prestige but also increases its attractiveness as a luxurious and serene place to live. Amenities include the International School, stables, Hotel N.H. Almenara, and as mentioned before, the prestigious golf courses of Valderrama, Almenara, and La Reserva. The nearby beachside area around the Real Club de Golf de Sotogrande offers a vibrant marina with restaurants, cafés, shops, and easy beach access. Stunning beaches with cliffs that offer magnificent views of Africa and the Strait of Gibraltar. They are excellent for water sports and birdwatching. Notable beaches include El Cabrero and Cala Taraje, located outside of Torreguadiaro, as well as Sotogrande and Torrecarbonera (set in a pristine natural environment). FACTS 3,0 km car / bike drive to the Clubhouse of the Valderrama Golf Court 5,2 km to the private Sotogrande International School 6,2 km to supermarkets such as Mercadona, Lidl and the Overseas british supermarkt 6.9 km to the beautiful beach of Sotogrande 7,0 km to La Reserva Club Sotogrande 7,2 km to the well known Tracadero Sotogrande 9,8 km to the notable beach of El Cabrero and Cala Taraje, located outside of Torreguadiaro 10,1 km to the port of Sotogrande (Puerto Sotogrande/Puerto Depertivo) 22,9 km to Gibraltar International airport 111 km to the airport of Malaga If you're looking for a place with a great sense of community where you can stroll through the streets and that serves as a home for many families, the San Roque neighborhood is a good choice.
