Valle del Guadalhorce, Coín

This beautifully renovated single-storey villa in Miralmonite, a quiet urbanisation between Alhaurín el Grande and Coín, offers the perfect blend of modern comfort and tranquil living. Set on a generous plot of almost 900m² with two separate entrances and ample parking, this home is designed for both relaxation and convenience. The main house features an inviting open-plan layout, seamlessly connecting the stylish kitchen, dining, and living areas, making it ideal for entertaining or unwinding. With three well-appointed bedrooms, a sleek family bathroom, an additional cloakroom toilet, and a practical utility room, the space is both functional and welcoming. A separate guest annex provides fantastic flexibility, complete with its own bedroom, shower room, and a cosy living area with a kitchenette, which is perfect for visitors or even rental potential. Step outside to a sun-drenched south-facing garden, where you'll find a refreshing 7x3.5m swimming pool, which becomes an oasis for cooling off on warm summer days. The property also benefits from PV solar panels, ensuring energy efficiency and reduced electricity costs.
