A rare luxury offering in Higueroón—secure this high-demand residence before it's gone.

Area Description:

Higueroón Area – Lifestyle, Luxury and Coastal Convenience

The Higueroón area is one of the Costa del Sol's most prestigious and fast-growing premium neighbourhoods, celebrated for its blend of modern luxury, natural beauty and exceptional connectivity. Set on an elevated position between Fuengirola and Benalmádena, Higueroón offers panoramic sea views, a refined residential atmosphere and easy access to some of the coast's finest beaches. It has become the preferred choice for international buyers seeking an upscale lifestyle with first-class services at their doorstep.

Higueroón is known for its meticulously planned communities, contemporary architecture and world-class facilities. The area boasts a renowned sports and wellness infrastructure, including high-end gyms, tennis and paddle courts, spa services, exclusive beach clubs and gourmet dining options. Its strong emphasis on wellbeing, security and modern living makes it a standout option for those who value comfort and convenience.

Residents benefit from excellent transport links, with direct access to the coastal highway and quick connections to Málaga Airport, the city centre and Marbella. Daily essentials—from supermarkets and cafés to boutique stores and medical centres are all within a short drive or walk, reinforcing the area's reputation for effortless, high-quality living.

Whether used as a full-time residence, a holiday retreat or a premium investment property, Higueroón offers long-term value supported by growing demand, ongoing development and a reputation for luxury living. The combination of coastal proximity, sophisticated amenities and an international community makes Higueraón one of the most desirable and dynamic locations on the Costa del Sol.
