Terrace with Lumon glass curtains: your favorite space all year round

The real star of this home is its spacious terrace with Lumon glass curtains.

In summer, open it up and let the sea breeze into your home.

In winter, close it and create an extra space filled with light, ideal as a chill-out area, outdoor dining room, or reading corner.

It is much more than a terrace: it is a natural extension of the living room that multiplies the possibilities of the home.

Private residential complex with swimming pool and paddle tennis court in Torre del Río
