It also has two private terraces. A smaller one on the lower floor with a roof and a large roof terrace with space for both a lounge and a dining area for larger groups. The roof terrace has a retractable shade cover that covers almost the entire terrace, which allows you to use the roof terrace as a living room during the day and in the evening can be used under the open sky.

The charming residential area was built in 1985 as a typical Andalusian of built up on several levels around a central square. It is picturesque, colorful and beautiful.

You can find both apartments and townhouses in the village as well as several small cafes, bars, restaurants and even a bank and a beauty salon. All this contributes to creating the cozy atmosphere.

Shops, golf, restaurants - close to all amenities

The residential area also has a well-maintained communal pool, close to this apartment, with stunning mountain views.
